

By The Kings Footsteps

Daily tours from September 12th until September 15th

The hill of Oplenac is situated in the heart of the Serbia`a picturesque Šumadija region and it represents foundation of the modern Serbian State. On its peak, stands a unique monument of the Serbian cultural and historical heritage - the Church of Saint George. A white marbled five-domed mausoleum of the Karadjordjevic dynasty, decorated with impressive mosaics in 15,000 nuances, depicting biblical scenes copied from medieval frescoes from more than 70 Serbian Orthodox Monasteries. Oplenac is also home to the 'Triumph' white wine, once produced exclusively for King Aleksandar Karadjordjevic, according to the original recipe of German winemakers.

A taste you don't want to miss!
