

Tracking the Wine Route

| Culture, Heritage, Wine and Natural Beauty |

September 12th, 14th and 15th

City of Vršac (86 km from Belgrade) is a really small baroque town, a place of culture, art and entertainment, with stunning architecture. It is a town on a wine route. The first documents that mention vineyards in this region are from the 15th century. In 1494, at the court of Ugrian king Vladislav II, a 50 liter barrel of wine from this region was worth 10,5 gold forint. Vršac has over 1750 ha of vineyards at its disposal, as well as the biggest wine cellar in central Europe. Gudurica village have to be mentioned since with Vršac they form one of the most interesting wine routes in Serbia.

PROGRAM:

10:00h - Group gathering at the parking place in front of the Continental hotel and departure towards Vršac

11:45h - Arrival in Vršac

12:00h - Visit the most significant city's sights – City Hall, where today stands the Assembly of Vršac, a complex consisting of three buildings built in three centuries XVIII, XIX and XX; Bishop's Palace – it was built in 1750 year when ancient seat of Vršac Episcopo was return from Karansebes to Vršac, for residential purposes of the Bishop of Vršac. Inside, the palace housed the chapel dedicated to St. Archangel Michael; Ortodox Church and St. Gerhard Cathedral; pass through city center beside the house of Jovan Sterija Popović, founder of the Serbian drama and beside the square of Paja Jovanović, the great Serbian painter.

14:30h - Departure from the city to the hill overlooking the city of Vršac. On the way panorama to the Vršac Vineyards from the both side of the road. Visit to Ortodox and Catholic Church and Tower with beautiful panorama of the city.

17:30 - arriving at Gudurica village at "Ber's wine cellar", built in 1875. and reconstructed in 2008. Dinner and wine degustation. Live tambourine music.

19:30h – Boarding the coach and transfer back to Belgrade

21:15h – Arrival in Belgrade

PRICE:

40 eur per person for minimum of 40 participants*

48 eur per person from minimum of 20 participants*

*extra surcharge for lunch at the restaurant ARENA – 15 eur per person

Price includes: transfers according to the program, all entrance tickets, tourist guide and program organization.

Price don't include: drinks during lunch

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

Until 12:00h one day earlier according to the departure